

Target Logistics makes community donations

August 27, 2012

As part of their goal to be good neighbors as they develop properties in North Dakota, Target Logistics made donations of $2,500 to the Mountrail County Sheriff's Department and Stanley Police Department as part of their grand opening celebration on Thursday, Aug. 9. Pictured left to right are Mountrail County Sheriff Ken Halvorson, Target CEO Brian Lash and Stanley chief of Police Kris Halvorson. The donations are for the departments to use as they see fit to help meet their needs in an ever growing community and county.

